10:00am at Immaculate Conception

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A — February 1st, 2026

4th Sun. of Ord. Time: We cannot avoid mercy!

Right in the middle of the nine "Blesseds", these beatitudes at the start of the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus says: "Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy." Mercy! Right in the middle. Yet mercy is preceded and followed by blessed righteousness, that is, by relationships that are right with God, with other people, and with all creation. What I do and what I say, by blessed words and actions, help bring on the Kingdom of Heaven (Saint Matthew's phrase for being in the presence of God).

- How will I seek justice by what I do today?
- How will I seek humility by what I say this week?
- How will I show mercy, be merciful?

Vocations Corner February 1:

In 1997, Pope Saint John Paul II instituted a day of prayer for women and men in consecrated life. This celebration is attached to the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 2nd (Candlemas Day). Let us make it a point to begin saying "THANK YOU" to our Sisters and Brothers who have made sacrifices for us by accepting God's call. Let them know how important they are in the life of your church and how they help you to honor and pray to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
