Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time —

Where we live and breathe. Saint Paul lays out in clear language the truth of our salvation – the Paschal Mystery of the dead and risen Christ. Then he adds: But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me has not been ineffective. This is because Jesus is with us where we live and breathe – just as with Peter and the boys in their boats – and the great crowd pressing in on him at the shore.

- What do I hear God saying to me today?
- What grace is God working within me?
- What mercy work does this urge me to do?

National Marriage Week
Feb 7-14, 2025

Marriage: Source of Hope, Spring of Renewal. Pursue a Lasting Love!

O God, who in creating the human race willed that man and wife should be one, keep, we pray, in a bond of inseparable love those who are united in the covenant of Marriage, so that, as you make their love fruitful, they may become, by your grace, witnesses to charity itself. Through Christ our Lord Amen.

Vocations Corner-February 9

A sage once wrote that a good marriage is like a fire around which others come to warm themselves. So, as we celebrate World Marriage Day on this Sunday, we realize that no matter our station in life - married, single or religious - we have benefited from this sacred covenant relationship whether through the example of our parents, grandparents, and other role models or through our own stewardship of the marriage covenant. For the Catholic steward, marriage goes far beyond the legal or societal agreement that our culture might define. Marriage brings us countless blessings but is met with many obstacles. Busy schedules, the challenges of parenthood, the strains of finances, mortgages, issued of health, and aging – all of these tests the bonds of even the finest unions.

Condolences to the family and friends of Margaret Tilley. May God's love provide peace and comfort during this time.

Du Quoin CDA will meet on Monday, February 10th at 6pm at Haffner Hall. Committee members are Marlene Kellerman, Mary Beth Lane, and Rose Numi.

We are looking for donations of consumable products (meats, cheeses, eggs, soda, wine, beer, candy) to use as game prizes for our Fat Tuesday celebration. Please drop off at the Sacred Heart Parish Office or contact Kim Dorsey 618-201-7776 or Patty Reaves 618-357-1321 if you wish to donate. Thank you for your support!!!
