Fifth Sunday of Lent — March 22nd, 2026

So dead! Some people do everything possible, and then some more, to stay alive. Some fear death. If we think ritually, we can be dead because of sin. We should fear that. But grace is stronger than sin. God's life is stronger than death. In fact, Christians cherish death because it is entrance from this life to life anew; it is entrance from this home to our eternal home. This death we should not fear.

- What life do I really need?
- What behaviors need (must) I avoid?
- What mercy work can I do to comfort the dying, to pray for the dead?

Those who are kind to the needy honor Him

On behalf of Father Godfrey Mullen, Diocesan Administrator, and diocesan ministries and programs, a most heartfelt thanks to all those who have already responded with a gift to the 2026 Catholic Service and Ministry Appeal. If you have not done so as yet, there's still plenty of time. One-time donations or pledges – in any amount – are needed and can be made through your parish or at www.diobelle.org (click on "Giving to the Diocese"). Your generosity supports 17 agencies and programs that daily serve thousands of people. Please consider making your gift today or at any time you are able in the coming months. We also ask for your prayers for the success of this year's appeal and all those we serve. Thank you and may God bless you always.

Those who are kind to the needy honor Him.

March 25th marks the anniversary of the papal encyclical Evangelium vitae (The Gospel of Life). Written by Pope St. John Paul II in 1995, this document on the value and inviolability of every human life remains an indispensable source of truth for all people. It reaffirms the "greatness and the inestimable value of human life" (EV 2) and addresses present-day legal, ethical, and moral threats to life.

Vocations Corner March 15:
This Thursday, (March 19th), is the feast of the Solemnity of St. Joseph. "When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him." (Matt 1:24). It was grace that moved Joseph to embrace his vocation as the guardian of Israel's Messiah. It's the same grace that empowers us to accept God's call and wisdom for our lives. Joseph's yes in faith changed the world. God also has a plan for your life. You don't know where your yes might lead and how God might use it. Ask St. Joseph to help. Then, like Joseph, go out in faith to be a "doer of the word" (James 1:22). (The Word Among Us)

Pray for
VOCATIONS

Sunday, March 22:
Today's Gospel recounts the death and rising of Lazarus. Wow! Who gets a 2nd chance to live their life? But how did this come to be? It was because of the power of God Almighty that Lazarus got another chance to follow the Lord and proclaim His goodness. We won't get a second chance to follow the "call" of God in our lives like Lazarus. So, we need to be attentive now to the call from within our hearts to become who we've been called to be. Roll away the stone and hear what the Lord wants us to be – maybe even a priest, sister, or brother.

St. Vincent DePaul If you or someone who you are aware of need help, please call 618-318-6765 or 618-318-0673 confidentially.

Getting to know our Confirmandi....

Hello, my name is Ethan Bathon and I attend 204 school in Pinckneyville. I chose St. Isidore to be my Saint. I chose him because he loved farming and was not afraid of hard work! I enjoy farming and all animals. I enjoy being outdoors, hunting, fishing, and farming. My parents are Ryan and Rhonda Bathon. Thank you for your prayers.

My name is Timothy Bathon, I go to community Consolidated #204 School. I am the son of Jamie Bathon and Melissa Slattery and have 3 sisters. I belong to St Bruno Catholic Church. I live on a farm, and I like to drive tractors and farm equipment. I picked St. Joseph because he was a carpenter like my grandpa. I am asking you to pray for me and my classmates.

Please pray for our children receiving the sacrament of First Communion this spring. They are Sebastian Bernhard, Chippy Brand, George Dreas, Allison Hagene, Bellamy Kellerman, Nash Lane, Victor Stanhouse, Conner Toler, Haddie Trail, Jessy Weatherford, & Margo Woodside.
