All Saints - November 1st, 2026

Saints Next Door – It can be easy to view the beatitudes as impossible goals for Kingdom of Heaven living. But they are not just dreams and hopes; they are norms, achievable standards of right behavior for baptized disciples. The second reading helps us grasp this. We are children of God not by blood or birth or desire. We are God's children by baptismal rebirth, by God's good choice. We constantly look, at Pope Francis' urging, for the saint next door. We constantly try to be one too.

- I will reread 1 John 3:1–3 each day this week to cherish how I am a child of God
- Let me name the "saintly" behavior of neighbors, co–workers, family.
- What will I do each day this week to be a saint next door?

The program used to create our weekly bulletin has recently changed. Please be patient with us as we become familiar with the new program and work through any kinks that may arise. We appreciate your understanding and patience during this transition. Thank you!

The Parish Offices will be closed Friday, November 6th.

November 1st, starts National Vocation Awareness Week, an annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States dedicated to promoting vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life through prayer and education, and renewed prayers and support for those who are considering one of these vocations. Suggest to our youth to consider a call from the Lord to serve the Church, and pray every day this week for an increase in vocations.

PRAYING FOR SEMINARIANS

Please pray for our Diocesan Seminarians. Each week, we will feature one of our 11 seminaries. Please consider dropping them a note of support. At the very least, a simple prayer would be helpful. For this week:

GUS KING
Conception Seminary College
37174 State Hwy V V
P.O. Box 502
Conception, MO 64433

Please also pray for seminarian Casmir Cozzi, as he is ordained to the transitional Diaconate this Saturday, November 7th at 10:00 AM at St. Peter's Cathedral in Belleville.

November 8th - "Discovering vocation does not mean scrambling toward some prize just beyond my reach but accepting the treasure of true self I already possess. Vocation does not come from a voice out there calling me to be something I am not. It comes from a voice in here calling me to be the person I was born to be, to fulfill the original selfhood given me at birth by God." – Thomas Merton

St. Bruno CATHOLIC SCHOOL

ST. BRUNO SCHOOL NEWS

https://www.facebook.com/stbrunoschool

Principal's Corner

Today, November 1st, is the Feast of All Saints. This ancient tradition of the Catholic Church was formally started by Pope Boniface IV in the year 609 AD, and is listed as Holy Day of Obligation where members of the Catholic faith are required to attend Mass unless excused for serious illness or another excellent excuse.

The children of St. Bruno School normally observe this day by learning about their favorite saint, and then dressing like that saint for Mass.. Each child is also given a couple minutes to talk about their favorite saint, sharing what they have learned with their fellow classmates. Even the students who are not of our Catholic faith participate in this event. Celebrating the Feast of All Saints is an important part of the Catholic mission of St. Bruno School.

Every teacher and staff member at St. Bruno School is called to help the children get to heaven. By participating in this Holy Day celebration, the children learn about the lives of people who struggled with their daily lives, and grew in their faith. The children learn how God works to transform all of us sinners into saints.

The Feast of All Saints is the perfect time for us to ask our children about their favorite saint, and how that saint guides the decisions they make. The Feast of All Saints is also the perfect time to say Thank You to all the staff at St. Bruno School for the important work they do. The influence these people have on our children is priceless. Please allow me to be the first to say Thank You!
