The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica — November 9, 2025

Sunday, November 9th we celebrate the Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica. Saint John Lateran is the pope's church, the cathedral of the Diocese of Rome where the Bishop of Rome presides. The first basilica on the site was built in the fourth century when Constantine donated land he had received from the wealthy Lateran family. That structure and its successors suffered fire, earthquake, and the ravages of war, but the Lateran remained the church where popes were consecrated. In the 14th century when the papacy returned to Rome from Avignon, the church and the adjoining palace were found to be in ruins. Pope Innocent X commissioned the present structure in 1646. One of Rome's most imposing churches, the Lateran's towering facade is crowned with 15 colossal statues of Christ, John the Baptist, John the Evangelist, and 12 doctors of the Church. Beneath its high altar rest the remains of the small wooden table on which tradition holds Saint Peter himself celebrated Mass. Unlike the commemorations of other Roman churches, this anniversary is a feast. The dedication of a church is a feast for all its parishioners. In a sense, St. John Lateran is the parish church of all Catholics, because it is the pope's cathedral. This church is the spiritual home of the people who are the Church.

November 9th

“Discovering vocation does not mean scrambling toward some prize just beyond my reach but accepting the treasure of true self I already possess. Vocation does not come from a voice out there calling me to be something I am not. It comes from a voice in here calling me to be the person I was born to be, to fulfill the original selfhood given me at birth by God.” – Thomas Merton

We thank our Veterans for their choice of vocation in serving and protecting our country.

Collection for Hurricane Melissa Victims

With the devastating effects of Hurricane Melissa just now coming to light, there is a dire need for food, clothing, housing and the basic essentials of life for thousands of people. We will hold a second collection today to support the relief efforts underway in areas that were impacted by this historic storm. Funds will be distributed by Catholic Relief Services. We are asking the people of the Belleville Diocese to offer your prayers and make a donation – in any amount – to assist in these efforts. Your gift also may be made next weekend or can be sent directly to the Diocese of Belleville, 222 South Third Street, Belleville, Illinois 62220. Please indicate “Hurricane Relief” on the memo line of your check. Thank you so much for your generosity; may God bless our suffering brothers and sisters in the Caribbean.
