Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time- October 18th, 2026

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Acting for the benefit of others. Prophet Isaiah tells this story of God calling Cyrus, the king of Persia, by name. God calls him to bring the Chosen People from Babylonian exile back home. St. Matthew tells another story, a setup. It is the discussion between the Pharisees and Jesus on paying taxes. Jesus says: Give Caesar what's his. Give God what is God's.

—How will I act for the benefit of others?
—What belongs to God?
—How will I give that back, give that away?

ST. BRUNO SCHOOL NEWS

<https://www.facebook.com/stbrunoschool>

Principal's Corner

St. Bruno School was honored to host the Teacher's Convocation for the South AEP Region of the Diocese of Belleville this past Friday, October 9th. Over 135 educators and administrators from 8 elementary schools and Gibaut Catholic High School gathered for a morning of faith-formation and fellowship.

The day started with a keynote address by Sr. Johanna Paruch. Sr. Johanna, with her wit and humor, challenged us to see Christ in everyone we meet and remain focused on our mission to help the children get to heaven. Sr. Johanna will again return to St. Bruno School in January to meet with our children and conduct an afternoon retreat with our staff. We attempt to live by Sr. Johanna's message everyday in every class at St. Bruno School.

After time spent on fellowship and sharing of ideas, Bishop Godfrey presided in Mass for the teachers. In his homily, Bishop Godfrey talked about the importance of Catholic Schools in our church and thanked everyone for the work we do at our schools. I would like to thank the Knights of Columbus for allowing us to use their facility that morning, as well as Mary Giacomo for her time making coffee for the group. I also thank Kacie Davis for helping with arrangements for the day, as well as Jane Fontana, Kelsey McAllister and Clay Travis for music at Mass. This day provided our teachers with an opportunity to deepen their faith, strengthen their relationships with other teachers and friends at the neighboring schools, and focus on the reason and importance of Catholic Schools. Thank you to everyone who helped make this day happen!
