Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time — September 13th, 2026

The Lord is kind
and merciful,
slow to anger,
and rich in compassion.
Psalms 103

Sin and forgiveness – yet again. Jesus tells a long story responding to Peter’s question: how often must I forgive? We know the answer by heart – not seven times but seventy-seven times. The wisdom of the Old Testament offers this help: do not hug sin tight...do not refuse mercy...put enmity aside...do not hate your neighbor... overlook faults. And St. Paul sings a hymn of baptismal belonging to Christ and to each other, a living and dying in the Lord (Romans 14:7-9) that underpins forgiveness. It is set to music in this lovely piece by Huub Oosterhuis and Floris van der Putt/Bernard Huijbers – <https://www.ocp.org/en-us/songs/16653>

—Who in my life (still) needs forgiveness?
—How will I be full of mercy?
—How can I live/die for the Lord this week?
