Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time — September 20th, 2026

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Jealousy and envy are often based on “zero-sum” thinking, an understanding that if one has more, then another has less. These feeling emerge in us when facing a limit, whether real or perceived. These emotions make no sense, however, when that which we seek has no limit. The parable in today’s Gospel points to an understanding and appreciation that God’s generosity and mercy are infinite. Even within the limits of our humanity, we are given the opportunity to act as agents of God’s mercy. Be generous in sharing these gifts that lead others to know God’s love.

Padre Pio: Miracle Man
This movie captures the Capuchin friar's intense faith, devotion, and deep spiritual concern for others, as well as his great compassion for the sick and suffering. It reveals the amazing details and events in Padre Pio's life as a boy and throughout his fifty years as a friar, dramatizing the frequent attacks from the devil, as well as the persecution he suffered at the hands of people, including those in the Church.
