Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time — September 27th, 2026

Show me
YOUR WAYS, LORD,
Teach me
YOUR PATH. guide me
IN YOUR TRUTH.
Psalm 25:1-5

Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time – Ezekiel 18:25-28. Psalm 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9. Philippians 2:1-11. Matthew 21:28-32.
I Don't Want To! Sometimes we bristle at being told what to do. We may say a yes or a no, then do something else. The demands of Christian living are not easy. But we look to Jesus for guidance, for encouragement, for example. Reread Philippians all week. It is a longer version of what we heard on Palm Sunday. It urges us to be like Christ.
-What attitude-adjustment do I need to be more like Christ?
-What will I do to be more compassionate and merciful?
-What interest of another will be important to me this week?

Blessing of the Pets.

This Priesthood Sunday, we give heartfelt thanks to God for the gift of the priesthood and for the many priests who have faithfully served our parishes throughout the years.

We are especially grateful for Father John and Father Longenus for their dedicated service, spiritual guidance, compassion, and love for our parish communities. We also remember with gratitude all of the priests who have served among us in years past. Their ministry, sacrifices, and faithful witness have touched countless lives and helped lead us closer to Christ.

Please join us in praying for Father John, Father Longenus, and all priests—past and present. May God bless them abundantly and strengthen them as they continue to serve His people.

Thank you, Fathers, for saying “yes” to God’s call to the priesthood!
