Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time—September 28, 2025

An awful thought. A scary reality.
I can be good tomorrow, we say. I can deal with that injustice next week, next month, next year, when the time is right, we say. The poor and hungry can surely wait. Well, Amos and Luke say otherwise. God is filled to the brim with pardon and mercy, with compassion, they say. All people that God loves are bound together, they say. The truth is, it is possible to run out of time to do good, God says. Do not be indifferent! So,
• What good will I do today?
• What injustice can I address this week?

This Sunday is Priesthood Sunday – a day set aside to celebrate Priesthood and all those who have accepted it as their life's work. When praying the rosary today, offer the first decade for the priest who baptized you, the second for the priest who gave you first Communion, the third for the bishop who confirmed you, the fourth for the priest who witnessed your marriage or the bishop who ordained you (or will do so in the future), and the fifth decade for the priest who will anoint you at your death. These are the priests who have been with you in your life.

Thank you to many of our parishioners of the Perry County Catholic Churches, for again providing desserts to the Veteran's Day Dinner. We hit a new high for this wonderful program, which was over 550. Very few were left. Again thank you for your generosity and time. God Bless America and our Veteran's whether past or present, especially those who made the ultimate sacrifices. Special thanks to Margie Born who coordinates this event along with Gay Eisenhower.

Father John would like to begin visiting more of the elderly and the families of the Perry County Catholic community to offer blessings and get to know everyone better. If you would welcome a visit, please contact either parish office.

Volunteer Youth Coordinator Needed

Perry County Catholic
Fiscal Year End Reports for
July 1, 2024– June 30, 2025

Our Catholic community is blessed with four parishes and one school, St. Bruno, Sacred Heart, Immaculate Conception, St. Mary Magdalen, and St. Bruno School. While each parish and the school operate as separate financial entities with their own income and expenses, we are all working together in faith toward the same goal of building up the Body of Christ. Each parish has a finance council that meets at least quarterly to review financial status, and annual fiscal year-end summaries are published for parishioners to review.

The purpose of this communication is to provide you, our parishioners, with a clear and transparent accounting of how the resources you share are being used to support our ministries, our school, and our service to the wider community. Finance councils, in collaboration with the pastor, review and approve reports, and the Diocese provides additional oversight. Through your generosity, Perry County Catholic continues to carry out
